

The Daily Gazetteer.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 24. 1737.

91°. 780.

Yesterday arrived a Mail from Holland.

LETTERS of the 27th ult. O. S. from Petersburg say, that Major-General de Stofelen, the Commandant of Ozakow, is declar'd a Lieutenant-General, in Consideration of his gallant Defence of that Place; and that the Czarina has given a Company to his Son the Lieutenant, who brought her the News of the raising of the Siege. Mean while the Russian Court has Advice, that the Grand Vizier is mustering his Troops again, in Order to attack it a second Time; whereupon several Expresses have been sent to the Russian Officers in the Ukraine, to send some of their Troops thither from their Winter-Quarters.

They write from Constantinople, that the British and Dutch Ambassadors are returned thither from Babadagh.

And from Belgrade, that Major General Doxat is acquitted by a Council of War, of the Accusation that was laid against him for the Surrender of Niessa, and is set out for Vienna, to give an Account of his Conduct to the Aulick Council of War.

Letters of the 7th Instant, O. S. from Vienna say, the Emperor has wrote a Letter with his own Hand, whereby he confers the Command of the Imperial Army in Hungary upon the Count de Konigsegg, Velt Marshal; and that he has sent an Order to the Generals and the Regiments in Hungary, declaring, that whatsoever Officer shall hereafter commit any Fault that deserves Chastisement, or even Death, he shall be try'd peremptorily in a Council of War, without referring the Matter to the Court. His Imperial Majesty has conferr'd the Chief Command of all his Forces on the Great Duke of Tuscany, with as extensive Power and Authority as the late Prince Eugene had; and his Royal Highness has already been complimented thereupon by all the Imperial Family, by the Ministers of State, the Foreign Ministers, and all other Persons of Distinction.

We are told, that the Commissioners appointed by the Court to inquire into the Affair of Count de Seckendorff, have already had Two Meetings, and made their first Report, as 'tis said, in his Favour, to the Aulick Council of War. The Count having been oblig'd in his Defence to charge several Matters upon an Officer of Distinction, that was subordinate to him, the Court has sent Orders to arrest him at Odenbourg in Hungary, to which Place he went after the Campaign was ended. Tho' the Circumstances of the Count's Affairs turn out every Day more and more in his Favour, yet a great many Stories are given out to the contrary, which are as far from Truth as Black is from White. Such is the Report, that the King of Prussia had sent to the Count, to demand the Order of the Black Eagle; whereas, 'tis certain, that he never was invested with that Order; and that the only Orders of Knighthood which he has, are the White Eagle, conferred on him by the King of Poland, and the Elephant, by the King of Denmark. The Prince de Lubomirsky, Palatine of Cracow, a Nobleman of great Abilities and Impartiality, thought that Equity, nay Humanity itself demanded of him, that he should not suffer any Credit to be given to the Report, that he had caused a great Sum of Money to be stopp'd, which was passing thro' the Country of Zips, in Barrels, &c. from the Count de Seckendorff. This Prince, who is very much attended to at the Court of Vienna, has declar'd publicly, That it gave him a real Concern to bear his Name mentioned in such Calumnies. That the Report of any Thing belonging to the Count seized in his Territories, was false; and that they must be the vilest Miscreants that could offer to publish such a palpable Lye, and such a gross Calumny.

The Letters add, that the Imperial Court has resolved to go into Six Weeks Mourning for the Death of her late Majesty Queen Caroline; and that on the 30th ult. died at Breslau the Count Joseph de Hornes, Lord of Geldrop, a Member of the Emperor's Privy Council, Vice President of the Royal Chamber of the Finances in Silesia, and one of the Members of the Royal Council of Commerce in the Upper and Lower Parts of that Duchy.

Letters of the 28th of November from Lisbon say, that the Brasil Fleet from Rio de Janeiro, enter'd the Tagus that very Day, consisting of 15 Merchant Ships, besides 12 from the New Colony of St. Sacrament, under Convoy of 2 Men of War; and that the Cargo consists of 30 Millions of Crutadoes, Diamonds to the Amount of 90,000 Carats, and a great Quantity of other Goods.

And from Cadiz they write, that the Representations made by the Consuls there, against the Indulto laid upon the Effects brought from New Spain by the last Flotilla, have prevailed on the Court to reduce the Indulto upon the Goods and Merchandise of Mexico to 9 per Cent: But nothing is abated of the 20 per Cent. Indulto laid upon Plate; and the Price of Cochineal was fix'd at 63 Ducats the Arobe.

Letters of the 11th O. S. from Dresden say, the Court of Saxony is going into Six Weeks Mourning for the Death of her late Majesty; and that on the Monday before, about 9 in the Evening, the Sky appear'd as if it had been all on Fire, and continued all Night so red, that the oldest People living say they never saw the like.

They write from Leipzick, that they have had such a Glut of wet Weather for 22 Weeks past, that the Merchants can't get to the Fair, the Price of Carriages is so much risen; and that they are afraid Sicknes will be the Consequences of so much Moisture in the Air.

Those from Berlin say, the Court of Prussia went last Sunday Sc'nights into Mourning for Three Months, upon account of the Death of her late Majesty.

ADVERTISEMENT CONCERNING THIS BOOK.

THIS MASTERPIECE OF RELIGIOUS POLICY WAS PUBLISHED, MANY YEARS SINCE, IN LATIN, FRENCH, AND DUTCH: MR. JOHN SCHIPPER, A BOOKSELLER AT AMSTERDAM, BOUGHT ONE OF THEM AT ANVERS, AMONG OTHER BOOKS, AND AFTERWARDS REPRINTED IT. THE JESUITS, BEING INFORMED THAT HE HAD PURCHASED THIS BOOK, DEMANDED IT BACK FROM HIM; BUT HE HAD THEN SENT IT TO HOLLAND. ONE OF THE SOCIETY, WHO LIVED AT AMSTERDAM, HEARING IT SAID, SOON AFTER, TO A CATHOLICK BOOKSELLER, BY NAME VAN RYKE, THAT SCHIPPER WAS PRINTING A BOOK WHICH CONCERNED THE JESUITS, REPLIED, THAT IF IT WAS ONLY THE RULES OF THE SOCIETY, HE SHOULD NOT BE UNDER ANY CONCERN; BUT DESIRED HE WOULD INFORM HIMSELF WHAT IT WAS. BEING SOLD BY THE BOOKSELLER, THAT IT WAS THE SECRET INSTRUCTIONS OF THE SOCIETY, THE GOOD FATHER, STRIPPING UP HIS SHOULDERS, AND KNITTING HIS BROW, SAID, THAT HE KNEW NO OTHER REMEDY BUT DENYING THAT THIS PIECE CAME FROM THE SOCIETY. THE REVEREND FATHERS HOWEVER THOUGHT IT MORE ADVISABLE TO PURCHASE THE WHOLE EDITION, WHICH THEY SOON AFTER DID, SOME FEW COPIES EXCEPTED; FROM ONE OF THESE IT WAS AFTERWARDS REPRINTED, WITH THIS ACCOUNT PREFIXED; WHICH IS THERE SAID TO BE TAKEN FROM TWO ROMAN CATHOLICKS, MEN OF CREDIT.
